

Tea Shop

Robby Ross

@Robby1567

Description

- Web application to search a database of teas
- Can make an account to login with
- Able to add items to your cart as well as remove them

Features

- Easy to use interface
- Working navbar
- Working login page
- Working frontend and backend with a database for the users and teas

Planning - User Stories

- Easy access to a variety of teas to purchase
- A working cart page so the user can add all they want before checking out
- A way to create an account to save carted items for later

Planning - Database

- A table of teas as well as the tea's type, price and description that are listed for buying
- A table to store a user's name, username and password

Technology Stack

- JavaScript
- React
- SQL server database
- Express

What I Learned

- How to connect to an API
- How to use AWS(Amazon Web Services) to host the database in the cloud
- How to use Express

What's Next

- Finishing the sign-up page
- Finishing the login authentication

